FIND CLEW TO HODGES IN Y.M.C.A.

Federal officials who are looking for George C. Hodges, the Oregon promoter under indictment in Portland by a Federal grand jury on a charge of using the mails to defraud, believe they have found a clew to the fugitive in a George C. Hodges who lived for a time at the local Y. M. C. A. building, going from this place to the Wahine Kapu apartments. He left his rooms at the latter place in April, after paying his bills, and told no one where he was going.

The George Hodges, who lived at the Y. M. C. A. and who Federal officials believe is the George C. Hodges wanted in Oregon, arrived in Honolulu on the Sierra, October 21, 1911, in company with Herman H. Herz, who later took charge of the boys' club work at Kakaako Settlement. Along with Herz, Hodges went to the local Association building, where he presented a Portland, Ore., Y. M. C. A. membership card. He also told Secretary Super that he was a newspaper man, and on this recommendation was given a room in the Y. M. C. A. dormitory.

According to A. E. Larimer, during the time that he roomed with Herz, Hodges never talked of his business aside from saying that he was interested in Oregon real estate.

He paid his room rent up to November 15, but on November 9 gave up his room without asking for any receipt, saying that he was in delicate health and was going to see a doctor in the neighborhood.

Larimer says Hodges was a quiet, unassuming sort of man. He was continually receiving cablegrams and was always making inquiries concerning the mails.

Lead Quiet Life.

During his stay in Honolulu he is not known to have made any attempts to sell stock or to float companies, but seems to have led an ordinarily quiet, unassuming life while here. He was well liked at the Y. M. C. A., and when he left was given a dinner by a few convivial spirits of the dormitory who were his intimate friends.

Herz has since left for Yokohama, and there is no one in town now who knew Hodges intimately enough to be able to say anything about his habits. From the Y. M. C. A. he went to the Wahine Kapu, where he met with an accident which confined him to his bed for three weeks.

In April, Hodges paid his reckoning at the Wahine Kapu, said good-bye, without mentioning where he was going, and disappeared. No one was interested enough at the time to make any inquiries as to where the quiet young man with the dreamy eyes proposed to go.

George C. Hodges was the business associate and companion of W. E. DeLarm, a promoter whose high finance operations placed him in the J. Rufus Wallingford class.

ROOSEVELT MEN PLAN ACTION KUHIO MAY BE ASKED TO JOIN

Progressives
To Work In Hawaii

The Progressive Party, the outcome of the Chicago convention fight, is to be launched in Hawaii, according to tentative plans brought back from the mainland by former Governor George R. Carter and A. L. C. Atkinson.

In answer to a question by the Star-Bulletin this morning, Mr. Carter stated that advice from the organization committee are now awaited, and that these will determine the procedure here.

"We have asked the organization committee to notify us—some one of us—as to the plans of the convention, when and where it is to be held, and we are hoping to send delegates from Hawaii to this convention," said Mr. Carter.

"It is barely possible the Progressive convention may endorse Woodrow Wilson, the Democratic nominee. This convention is to be held probably and preferably near the end of July.

Carrying Roosevelt badges, souvenirs and emblems by the score, with newspaper accounts of the convention, its prelude and its aftermath, by the bundle, and voting indignation at the treatment given the Roosevelt delegates, Carter and Atkinson came back on the Mongolia yesterday morning and within twenty-four hours there are signs pointing plainly to the possibility that the Progressive movement here may be tied up with Kuhio's recently announced fight against Frear.

Want Local Strength.

Kuhio's strength is wanted to lend local strength to the Progressive movement.

Though both Carter and Atkinson are uncertain as to immediate developments locally, the Star-Bulletin can state positively that already feelers have been put out to test the possibility of a combine with Kuhio's forces.

On the same steamer that brought back the two Roosevelt enthusiasts, there came Charles Rice of Kauai, Col. Sam Parker, John Wise and A. Q. Marshall, delegates, alternates or onlookers at the big political show in Chicago last month.

Stories by the wholesale as to the convention and Hawaii's part were let loose when all the politicians got on terra firma. On one hand, the Roosevelt men declare with indignation that right and justice was trampled on flagrantly at Chicago, that Taft is already beaten, that Roosevelt is a sure winner. If the Progressive convention nominates him, that Hawaii ought to jump in the Progressive ranks.

U.S. ORDERS GRAND JURY FOR FISHER

On instructions direct from Attorney-General Wickham, an order was issued today calling the federal grand jury together July 15; a special agent, who will have charge of the investigation by the jury is thought to be enroute to Honolulu, and Secretary of the Interior Fisher is expected to start for Hawaii within the next few weeks.

"No, I don't know what it means," said United States District Attorney R. W. Breckons, when asked this morning for an explanation of this apparently sudden activity on the part of the federal government.

"I have not been informed as to what is to be done, have received no instructions, am left only the guess that whatever is done will be under the guidance of a special agent from Washington."

"The call for the grand jury has come directly from Washington, and as I have received no further information I judge that a special agent is to be sent to take charge of the work."

He was unable to say whether the proposed investigation would include the activity of the present administration in the Territory in the land and

HAWAII'S VOTE AGAINST ROOT WAS FOR POLITICAL REASONS, SAY DELEGATES

"That the Hawaii delegation voted against Root and for McGovern as temporary chairman at Chicago for political reasons is the explanation of the now-famous 'six for McGovern' vote, brought back by the men who were at the big convention.

Incidentally, it develops that a member of the delegation sent a cablegram to Hawaii shortly after this vote, saying in substance the vote was for 'good political reasons. Hawaii for Taft first, last and all the time."

That the vote was a protest against the steam-roller methods by which two delegates were grabbed from the California Roosevelt camp, and by which other Roosevelt men were blocked from the convention, is said to be only partly true, and that Hawaii had something else besides this in mind. The local delegation, going instructed so far as Taft himself was concerned, could not jockey on the nomination, but could maneuver in the other skirmishes.

The Chicago Daily News caught Jack Cony of Kauai in a communicative mood and published the following story on Saturday, June 22:

There is one group of delegates on the floor of the Coliseum who have a "missionary conscience." They are the Hawaiians.

"Some of the things done here look pretty rotten to us," said John H. Cony, member of the delegation, today, when asked what the Hawaiians, who are instructed for Taft, thought of the proceedings at the convention.

"We are instructed for Taft," continued Mr. Cony, "but we don't feel we can endorse all the Taft people do here. That is why Hawaii's six votes have been cast so variously. We

UNDERWOOD IS AGAINST FREE SUGAR

Oscar W. Underwood, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, is strongly against free sugar, and so declared himself to a delegation of Hawaiians who visited him a few weeks ago.

Attorney E. M. Watson piloted the delegation, which consisted of Charles A. Rice of Kauai, Harry Irwin, the Democratic delegate from Hilo, and Albert Horner, into see, Champ Clark and Underwood.

"Mr. Underwood told us," said Mr. Rice this morning, "that he is not in favor of free sugar, and that he is in favor of a moderate revision of the sugar tariff that will be certain not to cripple the industry. He told us that on the Democratic bill in this Congress he was outvoted by the Democratic caucus."

The Hawaiian businessmen who saw Underwood were impressed with the fact that he appreciates Hawaii's position and that the next Congress will find him against free sugar.

Carter Says
'Twas Great
Theft

By GEORGE R. CARTER.

The suicidal success of the reactionaries in the Republican party was complete. No man who stands for a truly representative party can stand any longer in the Republican party.

The national committee, with its power of initiative, defied public opinion, ignored justice, reversed its own decisions, set aside its own rules, seated its tainted delegates and openly determined to rule by rule.

Its dishonest majority elected him, and Mr. Root proved true to his clients.

The clearly-expressed wishes of the majority of Republican voters in Pennsylvania, Oregon, New Jersey, Minnesota, Maine, Wisconsin, Maryland, Kansas, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Dakota, Nebraska and West Virginia have been ignored.

Sovereign States have been wrongfully deprived of their full representation in a Republican convention.

It is no longer a question of policies or of men, but a great moral question has arisen. It is no new issue—it was handed down to us from Sinai, and is expressed in the eighth commandment, "Thou shalt not steal."

The vital question clearly at issue is, Shall the people rule? The crisis is best expressed in Lincoln's words when he said:

"I am not bound to win, but I am bound to be true; I am not bound to succeed, but I am bound to live up to the light I have, and I must stand with anybody who stands right; stand with him while he is right and part with him when he goes wrong."

A new party has been born. It came forth out of those ten dark days in Chicago, where bosses, beaten in their own districts, fighting for their political existence, deliberately stole the nomination of a President, dishonored themselves and their candidates, who with their followers are still silent as to their responsibility in accepting the benefit of a moral wrong.

To acquiesce or adopt the result of the Chicago convention is to endorse fraud, to submit to gag rule, to yield all hope for or in representative party government.

The new Progressive party aims to unite all sections—North and South, East and West—in demanding social and industrial justice.

Its cry is, "Injure no man, but let no man injure you." Its goal is that which has ever been the aim of the American people and the hope of the world—a true democracy, which avoids the tyranny of the minority as well as the tyranny of the majority. We in Hawaii can not avoid this issue—we have got to meet it.

ALLAN HERBERT RECUPERATING IN CALIFORNIA

Allan Herbert, member of the Hawaiian delegation to the Democratic convention at Baltimore, was unable to go to the convention on account of illness, and, instead, went to Arrowhead Springs, Cal., to recuperate.

This news was received here by friends of Dr. St. D. G. Walters, Dr. Walters writing that Mr. Herbert is showing every sign of recovering from the strain of traveling. He was ordered to take a rest. The news came from California the latter part of June and therefore Mr. Herbert's friends feel certain that there is no need for worry.

There was a report some time ago as to Mr. Herbert's condition, but the letter from Dr. Walters is the first definite word that Mr. Herbert's many friends have had.

Mr. Herbert would have been, it is said, the oldest delegate at Baltimore.

Land Commissioner Joshua Tucker will sell at public auction tomorrow several land leases, one of 250 acres at Alea and the other a number of government remnants on Maui, containing a total of about fifty-nine acres. The sale will be held on the steps of the capitol building at noon.

QUARREL OVER JULY 4th PARADE

Slayer Held at Police Station Tells of Desperate Combat for the Possession of Fatal Knife Late Tuesday Night—He Claims Killing Unintentional—Combatants Rocked To and Fro for Over an Hour Fighting for the Blade.

One man was killed and his wife dangerously wounded in a stabbing affray late Tuesday night as the result of a discussion regarding the advisability of Portuguese entering the Fourth of July parade.

Manuel Souza and his wife were the victims and F. A. Mosqueti is held by the police as the man who did the stabbing which occurred in a Miller street tenement. There were no other witnesses except the three concerned, and according to the story told by Mosqueti, the three rocked to and fro for over an hour locked in deadly combat over the possession of the knife which finally ended the affray.

Mosqueti, who is being held by the police, denies that he did the stabbing intentionally but declares that the wounds were inflicted in the struggle over the weapon.

According to the story which Mosqueti tells, he dropped in Tuesday night to pay Souza and his wife a visit.

Quarrel Over Parade.

The conversation gradually worked around to the subject of the Fourth of July parade and immediately the question was introduced as to whether it would be advisable for the Portuguese to enter a parade commemorating an event in the history of another

There was a difference of opinion. Mrs. Souza took her husband's side and as the argument waxed warmer, the contestants grew more bitter. What happened after this is what the police are trying to find out.

It was after midnight when neighbors called the police when a wagon load of detectives arrived, they found Souza and wife lying upon the floor in a pool of blood while Mosqueti was running aimlessly about the room, wringing his hands. The knife was lying on the floor.

Souza and his wife were hurried to the Queen's hospital while the police placed Mosqueti under arrest.

It was found that Souza was dangerously wounded about the chest and stomach, while his wife had received several cuts about the shoulders.

Souza died late last night without regaining consciousness and his body was taken to the government morgue this morning. Mrs. Souza is still living and it is expected that she will recover.

Mosqueti is being held at the police station while Captain Kellett and Deputy Sheriff Rose conduct an investigation.

HAWAII BOOSTS U. S. REVENUE; INCREASE SHOWN

Possibly no other internal revenue district in the country outside New York City will show a greater increase in business during the last year than Hawaii. C. S. Albert, the Star-Bulletin's Washington correspondent reported several weeks ago that on the first ten months' business Hawaii stood fifth among the districts of the United States.

The report of Internal Revenue Collector Cottrill for the fiscal year ending June 30 has been forwarded to the national capital, and while the figures cannot be given out here, he states that they show an increase of 20 per cent over the collections of any previous year in the Territory's history. It is thought that when those revised figures, showing the entire year's work, are compared with others they will show larger advance than any other, excepting possibly those of the New York City office.

Cottrill's report also contains a unique feature. It shows that at the close of business Saturday afternoon, June 29, there was not a cent of corporation tax remaining to be collected. All liquor taxes were also collected, following the new rule placed in effect a year ago requiring all these to be gathered on or before the final business day of the year. Heretofore it has been customary to permit payments to lag behind, extending into the latter part of July. The new rule demands absolutely prompt payment.

CLARK CABLES RUSSIANS COME

Dr. Victor S. Clark, Commissioner of Immigration, cabled to the Board today that forty-five Russian laborers are coming on the Shinyo Maru from Manchuria, arriving here from the Orient on July 16.

While it is not definitely known, it is presumed that these were booked under the former arrangement with the Perelstous immigration scheme, the agreement being now terminated. The Russians coming, it is believed, were found by Dr. Clark to be suitable for immigrants.

The crew of the navy tug Navajo is in for what is practically a week's vacation, commencing tomorrow. The tug, Captain Babson, is to sail for Hilo, to give all the men liberty and a chance to see the volcano.

MILLION DOLLARS OF PIONEER BONDS TO BE REDEEMED

Pioneer Mill Company, Ltd., is about to redeem its million dollars of bonded indebtedness, refunding half of the amount at 5 per cent. Instead of 6 per cent. as the old bonds carry.

Notice of a special meeting of the Pioneer stockholders on July 17, to consider two propositions on the lines stated appears in this issue.

"The old bond issue will be paid back on the first of October this year," said J. F. Hackfeld this afternoon, "and very likely new bonds will be issued to the amount of $500,000 at 5 per cent. The old bond issue outstanding is about $1,000,000."

"Yes, Pioneer is in very good condition at present."

FISHER COMES IN AUGUST

Secretary of the Interior Fisher is coming to Hawaii on his mission of investigation early in August.

The San Francisco booking offices, the Star-Bulletin has ascertained, have Fisher booked on the Shinyo Maru, leaving the Coast on August 5, and if he takes this foreign steamer, he must pay a fine of $200. He is also said to be booked on the Honolulu, to arrive here August 13, and on one other boat.
